Read: - Govt. Circular No. Minority Development Department No. Ashais-2012 / Q No 21 / Karya-5 (अशैस - २०१२ / प्र.क. २१ / कार्य - ५)

Preface:

Procedures, terms and conditions for granting status as a religious / linguistic minority institution to educational institutions run by minorities in the State are prescribed by the relevant Government Resolutions. Due to non-availability of students belonging to the respective religious / linguistic groups there were frequent requests from such educational institutions for conducting higher, technical or vocational courses to amend the procedures, terms and conditions of the relevant G.R. In this regard, considering all the tremors, the matter of amending the ruling in the above context was under consideration of the Government.

Government Circular:

The above referenced government decision regarding admission recruitment of students in "A" paragraph no. 10(iv) (A) (b) and (c) are being amended here and those amended paragraphs are as follows.

10 (iv) - Admission of Minorities in Educational Institutions - The admission procedure implemented as follows for degree / diploma and further courses in the Higher, technical or professional educational institutions run by minority organizations

1. Aided Minority Institutions: -a) All Minority Educational Institutions should admit students in a transparent manner through common entrance test or quality.
- b. Aided Religious / Linguistic Minority Educational Institutions should give priority to students from respective minority groups, at least 50% of the seats of their admission capacity should be given to students to the minority group related to which the educational institution has received minority status. If the concerned religious / linguistic minority educational institution fails to

of the religious / linguistic students in their minority group as mentioned above, then the following action should be taken.

(i) Aided Religious Minority Institutions: - Aided Religious Minority Institutions should admit students from other religious minority groups declared by the State Government and if students from other religious minority groups are also not available, admit students from linguistic minority groups. Irrespective of best efforts if seats remain vacant then, non-minority students should be admitted with governments prior permission.

(ii) Aided Linguistic Minority Institutions : Aided Linguistic Minority Institutions should admit students from other linguistic minority groups declared by the State Government. If students from other Linguistic Minority groups are also not available Institutions should admit students from religious minorities. Irrespective of best efforts if seats remain vacant then, non-minority students should be admitted with governments prior permission.

(iii) Also, while filling the remaining 50% seats from open category non-minority students, it is mandatory to give admission as per the seats reserved for Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes, Nomadic Castes, Deprived Castes, Special Backward Classes and other Backward Classes as per the reservations made by concerned educational departments of the State Government.

2. Unaided Minority Institutions: - All unaided Minority Educational Institutions should admit students in a transparent manner through common entrance test or quality.

c) Unaided Religious / Linguistic Minority Educational Institutions should give priority to students from respective minority groups, at least 51% of the seats of their admission capacity should be given to students to the minority group related to which the education institution has received its minority status. If the concerned religious / linguistic minority educational institution fail to fill 51% of the religious / linguistic students in their minority group as mentioned above, then the following action should be taken.

(i) Unaided Religious Minority Institutions: - Aided Religious Minority Institutions should admit students from other religious minority groups declared by the State Government and if students from other religious minority groups are also not available, admit students from linguistic minority groups. Irrespective of best efforts if seats remain vacant then, non-minority students should be admitted with governments prior permission.

(ii) Unaided Linguistic Minority Institutions : Aided Linguistic Minority Institutions should admit students from other linguistic minority groups declared by the State Government. If students from other Linguistic Minority groups are also not available Institutions should admit students from religious minorities. Irrespective of best efforts if seats remain vacant then, non-minority students should be admitted with governments prior permission.

(iii) Also, while filling the remaining 49% seats from open category non-minority students, institutions should give admission to open category and they can also admit students from Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes, Nomadic Castes, Deprived Castes, Special Backward Classes and other Backward Classes as per discretion to maintain social balance and justice.

while proceeding as above Minority Education Institution should publish advertisement in newspaper as mentioned in the Part A paragraph 10 (iv) (d). In advertisement the institution should ask the students from respective religious / linguistic minority groups for which the institution has received minority status to apply for admission, it will also ask students from other religious / linguistic minority as declared by Maharashtra State Government and non minority students to apply for admission. The advertisement should also mention that if an institution does not receive applications from students belonging to religious / linguistic minority groups for which the institution has received the minority status it will admit students from other religious / linguistic minority groups on merit.
