The event saw enthusiastic participation from students of Konark Ideal College of Science and Commerce, Kalyan (E). Facilitators and experts from Brightway Academy led the sessions, while representatives from both institutions coordinated the proceedings.

The session was structured to encompass various academic and career-related segments. It included workshops, presentations, Q&A sessions, and a panel discussion. Topics were tailored to the interests and learning objectives of both institutions. Students were engaged in subject-specific workshops and presentations by experts from Brightway Academy. Interactive Q&A sessions allowed students to pose queries and contribute to discussions. A panel discussion featuring faculty members and industry experts from both institutions explored contemporary trends, challenges, and opportunities within specific fields.

The event concluded with a summary of the key insights gained. Students appreciated the opportunity to delve deeper into diverse subjects. The interactive nature of the session facilitated engaging discussions, broadening their perspectives. The enthusiasm and active participation of the students were noteworthy.

Outcomes:

- Students were exposed to advanced topics beyond their regular curriculum, enhancing their understanding and knowledge base.
- Interaction with experts and peers from another institution broadened students' academic exposure and provided valuable networking opportunities.
- The Q&A sessions and panel discussions provided a platform for insightful conversations, addressing pertinent queries and exchanging diverse viewpoints.
